

Getting to Know OUR Library Staff

Joe – Joe has been working at the library since July of 2010 and has been the cataloger since 2014. His favorite book genres are young adult and mystery. When he's not working, he's watching the St Louis Blues or Cardinals games, playing video games, or traveling. His favorite food is Mexican. His favorite color is blue. Lastly his books recommendation is Looking for Alaska by John Green, though any of John Green's books would be a great choice.
